FIFTEEN CENTS

Strongest point

Antioch's first-rate community services

(Editor's Note: This is the fourth article in a series on how and why Antioch is enjoying steady and prosperous growth.)

By LINDA BARNES

Antioch's variety and quality of community services have for many years proven to be one of its strongest and most consistent drawing points.

Excellent police protection, high-quality schools, an extremely efficient public works department, first-rate and very committed fire and rescue volunteers, a well-supplied library and an extensive and very active park and recreation department have all contributed to Antioch's reputation as a town with fine and highly commendable community services.

In examining people's reasons for choosing Antioch as their home, a consideration most frequently mentioned was the local school system.

SOMEHOW, EITHER through literature or word of mouth, people looking for homes became aware of the fine

Lions Club picnic to offer barbeque, games, contests

Pie eating contests, Garfield Goose and the Muppets, and delicious chicken barbeque will be some of the attractions at the Antioch Lions Club's annual Farmer's Picnic, Chicken Barbeque and Auction Sunday, Aug. 6.

The picnic is set from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. at the Antioch Aqua Center in Williams Park. Before the barbeque begins, the Antioch swim team will hold an invitational meet at 9 a.m. at the Aqua Center against Brentwood Country Club, Kenosha, Waukegan and Libertyville.

THEN SWIMMERS AND VISITORS can munch on charcoal broiled chicken barbeque at a donation of $3 per plate. Tickets for the barbeque can be purchased from Lions Club members, the State Bank, the First National Bank or the Antioch Savings and Loan, or on the premises that day.

GAMES FOR YOUNG and old start at 1:30 p.m. with entertainment by Garfield Goose and the Muppets, a balloon toss, sack races and a pie eating contest. The games are being directed by Chuck Cermak.

Also, the annual auction, which has always drawn a large crowd in the past, will be conducted by Herman Behm, starting at 12:30 p.m. Proceeds will be donated to the Rescue Squad from the Lions Club.

Donations of saleable items can be made by calling the village hall at 395-1000.

Meyer claims teaching job, board says no

By JERRY PFARR

Those who thought the "differences" between former superintendent Henry Meyer and the Antioch grade school board would end June 30 underestimated Mr. Meyer's interest in Grade School District 34.

He promptly requested what he called "my teaching assignment" in the district.

At last week's meeting, the school board went into a brief executive session and emerged with a rejection of what board president Gail Heath called "Meyer's contention that he is entitled to a teaching position in District 34."

BACKGROUND OF THE NEWS

LAST SUMMER THE BOARD agreed to pay Mr. Meyer $60,000 for one year to break off his contract as superintendent as of June 30, 1978.

ANGER IS OFTEN more harmful than the injury that caused it.

When Leonardo da Vinci was working on his painting "The Last Supper," he became angry with a certain man. Losing his temper he lashed the other fellow with bitter words and threats. Returning to his canvas he attempted to work on the face of Jesus, but was unable to do so. He was so upset he could not compose himself for the painstaking work. Finally he put down his tools and sought out the man and asked his forgiveness. The man accepted his apology and Leonardo was able to return to his workshop and finish painting the face of Jesus.

Catanzaro, the restaurant's "store activities representative." The winners were Mr. and Mrs. Mike Trower of Lake Villa.

From McDonald's: a family reunion

Mike and Judy Trower of Lake Villa were the winners in the family reunion contest at the McDonald's restaurant in Antioch.

McDonald's "Salute to Families of America" was advertised nationwide and the winners' names were drawn July 16 in restaurants throughout the country.

The Antioch area "family reunion" winners will receive two free airplane trips.

Mrs. Trower said that she will use them to fly relatives from the Southwest to Chicago, for a visit in Lake Villa.

In addition to the reunion prize, the Trowers will receive a special membership in the American Family Society, a not-for-profit organization which promotes the value of the American family.

The festivities marked the end of the nation-wide "salute" which included 28 national prizes of reunions for 10 friends or relatives, a local prize at each participating McDonald's of a reunion for two, plus reunion parties and family dinners.

Travel arrangements will be handled by United Airlines.

THE TOWN CRIER

My job is a lot bigger than just walking around town ringing my bell and making announcements. I also must mend fences.

Like the one that has broken down between the Moose Club and the Antioch Jaycees.

IT SEEMS THE JAYCEES failed to show up for last Wednesday's softball game against the Moose team.

In all good faith, Manager Scotty Lowe and his mighty men of the Moose Lodge showed up, looking for an evening of enjoyment. The Women of the Moose were ready to serve sandwiches after the game.

"Two years ago we accepted another of the Jaycees' challenges, using men who hadn't played softball in years, and we lost by four runs," a miffed Moose member said. "This year we have a good team and think they chickened out. Scotty Lowe said he won't play the Jaycees again unless they come up with a $25 bet and a barrel of beer."

"At the Aug. 6 Lions Club picnic," the man added, "we plan to serve Jaycees chicken along with the usual chicken bar-b-que."

WELL, AS A GO-BETWEEN, I talked with members of the Jaycees' team. They couldn't show up for the game but their message never reached the Moose Lodge.

Here's where they made their mistake:

Since the Jaycees, from previous games, have a lineup as battered as the Chicago Cubs, they decided to have Cubs' manager Herman Franks handle their scheduling.

"Tell the Moose we can't make it this week," they ordered Herman.

Well, being an old baseball man, Herman thought they meant Moose Skowron, not the Moose Lodge. So he told the wrong Moose.

(I wonder if Scotty Lowe and his team will believe that?)

To the Editor:

Can't something be done about the bike riders on the sidewalks in Antioch? Especially on Main St.?

I have to walk to town from 661 Main St., as do other senior citizens. You take your life in your hands when you do. Three times I have almost been knocked down. Three, four, sometimes five bikes come up in back, give no warning to let you know they are in back.

The other day a guy was wheeling a motorcycle down the sidewalk and I had to get off the sidewalk onto the grass.

I asked him if he shouldn't be in the street with that thing and he said, "No."

Antioch, do something, please.

Dear Editor,

I would like to express my sincere thanks to the American Legion Women's Auxiliary for giving me the opportunity to attend Illini Girl's State. It was a very rewarding week, filled with experiences too numerous and exciting to express in few words.

I only hope that I may be able to reach out to the girls eligible for this governmental seminar next year to spark their interest so that I.G.S. will become more well known in the Antioch area. I think what I'm really trying to say is that you can't understand completely what a tremendous experience Girl's State is unless you have been there yourself.

The American Legion Auxiliary does a lot of work to plan and organize I.G.S. so that it runs smoothly and accomplishes its purpose; if it weren't for these ladies and their sincere dedication to the youth of our state and our nation, we would not have I.G.S.

Now, I am trying to do my part in return; to help the community become more aware of Girl's State and to answer any questions from any girls who will be Juniors at A.C.H.S. next year concerning the same. The Girl's stators of today will someday be the leaders of tomorrow.

Thank you Auxiliary, for helping to form those leaders.

God took Tony Lema ... He can pick 'em

By JERRY PFARR

One of the best Christmas presents I ever received is "Golfer's Gold," by Tony Lema. It's something I'll always treasure, unless I make the mistake of lending it to one of those friends who never return my favorite books.

Even if you don't care about life on the professional golf tour, you would be unable to resist "Champagne Tony," who got that nickname because he bought the stuff for the golf writers every time he won a tournament.

Tony and his charm, and his beautiful wife, Betty, died in a plane crash. He was only 32 and was joining Nicklaus and Palmer in the ranks of the greats. The world,

'That's the way life should be ...

lost a lot when that plane crashed.

It is full of his wit. And his love for a game that is pure and simple, the way life should be. No cheating, no maneuvering.

"The powerful lure of the tour," he said, "is the clean and uncomplicated nature of the competitive challenge it presents. I guess a few good baseball players never got a real chance to show their wares because the manager could not stand them. I guess a few quarterbacks were made to look bad because their teammates wouldn't block for them. I guess a few junior executives became senior executives because they could play office politics. Well, you can't win golf tournaments by playing politics. Once you have put your ball down on the first tee no one can hold you back but yourself. In tournament golf everything is right out there in the open. In the long run the best player — and when I say the best I mean in every department: skill, nerve, and temperament — is going to shoot the best scores, win the most tournaments, make the most money. That is the way life should be, really, and yet so seldom is. But that is the way of life on the pro tour."

Lema used to enjoy kidding Arnold Palmer about all the money Arnie was making.

At the New York Golf Show one year Lema was on stage and Palmer was late.

"Arnie will be here shortly, folks," Tony smiled. "You see the Arnold Palmer Airlines was behind schedule, and then he had to stop for a steak at the Arnold Palmer restaurant, and then catch an Arnold Palmer taxi ... oh, oh, here he comes now."

"Hey, Arnie, I brought some dirty clothes along. Thought you might drop them off for me at the Arnold Palmer laundry."

Palmer couldn't do anything but go along with the jokes. Nobody could outwit or dislike Tony Lema.

And Arnie no doubt had read "Golfer's Gold" and knew how Lema felt about him:

"Arnold is certainly my choice as the best golfer in the world. I have never gone in for idolizing any single person, but if I do have an idol it is Palmer. I am not alone in this sentiment. Palmer is highly respected by every player on the tour because, in addition to being such a magnificent golfer, he is a very down-to-earth person. He was thoughtful and unselfish when he first came out on the tour and his spectacular success has not changed him at all. Most of the touring pros agree that if fate has decreed one man must dominate our profession, then we are happy this role is played by Arnold. No one could represent us more ably."

Tony Lema was no prude. He lived during his 32 years — he smelled all the flowers. But in his book he couldn't resist inserting the needle into some of his opponents:

"There are guys on the tour who read the so-called men's magazines. There is no place for such trash in an athlete's mind or in his motel room. I know some guys on the tour who read that stuff and, you know what? I can beat 'em all."

School board says 'no' to Meyer's request

The only "reason" ever given was, basically, "incompatibility."

One board member said at the time:

"We felt $60,000 for one year's work was a cheap price to pay to keep a grade school district together. The way it was going, the continuous haggling would have been harmful to the students."

THE AGREEMENT REACHED with Mr. Meyer after numerous closed-door sessions was accepted 6 to 1 by the board with Milo Bailey the only member voting "nay."

Mr. Bailey did not run for re-election this year and the board now includes Mrs. Heath, Jimmie Quedenfeld, Homer (Sid) Parker, Bruce Jablonski, Garnet Cook, Edward P. Haley and Clinton Glover.

MR. MEYER SAID MONDAY that his attorney, a member of a Chicago law firm that specializes in educational cases, feels he has a legal claim to a teaching job in the district because of tenure.

He was employed by the district for eight years - three years is required for tenure, unless there is a bonafide three-year contract, Mr. Meyer said.

Mrs. Heath issued a statement at last week's board

HAPPENINGS in and around our community

The $100 scholarship is provided by the Lake County Home Economics Association.

To qualify for the scholarship, a person must be a resident of Lake County and have earned at meeting, that said:

"This board of education is both surprised and appalled with former superintendent Mr. Meyer's request to work as a teacher ... for the 1978-79 school year."

"In effect," she said, "the final settlement to which this board and Mr. Meyer agreed, called for an inordinately large salary in exchange for Mr. Meyer's resignation from all future duties in the district. Mr. Meyer accepted $60,000 of local taxpayers' money and ... he is now claiming ... that he has a right to a position. Whether Mr. Meyer has a legal claim to the position he will have to prove."

MR. MEYER HASN'T REVEALED whether or not he will contest the issue in court.

He did say:

"I never resigned, they never asked me to resign, nor did I ever agree to resign. All that happened was that a three-year contract was nullified and all rights of the three-year contract were terminated. Following that, a one-year contract for $60,000 was agreed on."

"They never talked about buying off my three-year contract," he added. "If they had, it would have cost more than $90,000." His annual salary was $32,500.

"THE SUBJECT OF teaching tenure was never discussed," Mr. Meyer said. "I'm qualified for almost any job except special education."

Mrs. Heath said last week, referring to the agreement to pay Mr. Meyer $60,000 for the 1977-78 school year in exchange for his resignation, "all parties felt this was the best way to resolve the insurmountable differences which existed between Mr. Meyer and the board of education."

Mr. Meyer said, "I never received a list of the differences."

Mrs. Heath said, "The morality of this issue is quite disturbing to the board. Mr. Meyer agreed to the terms of the settlement, accepted the money called for, but is now unwilling to live by the terms and understandings derived through negotiations in which he participated."

Meyer's response was, "I have lived up to the terms of both the written contractual agreement and the discussions surrounding them. Never was there any discussion concerning my contractual rights as a teacher."

Mr. Meyer added that the only way he could get a full retirement pension in Illinois would be to serve a minimum of two more years in the public system.

"It would mean between $5,000 and $6,000 annually in extra pension," he said.

Harold Knott, a bookkeeper was drowned in the Little Wabash River. He used a suit of ordinary underwear for a bathing suit and a button broke, letting the lower garment down about his ankles.

The "Waukegan Day" celebration committee visited Antioch Monday in eleven "flagged, tagged and bannered" automobiles, containing forty-two enthusiastic Waukegan Day boosters. They made an imposing appearance and distributed show cards, posters and buttons promiscuously about town.

IMPROVED PHONE SYSTEM SOON TO BE INSTALLED - No more turning the crank after next Oct. Antioch will have a new modern telephone system in operation by the middle of next Oct. The new building is now being constructed on the west side of Victoria st., south of Lake. The switchboard, terminal equipment, operators quarters, and the company business office will all be in the new home.

Mrs. Theresa Albrecht fell in her home last Thursday and broke her arm, so is not enjoying her stay at her cottage here as much as she would otherwise.

The nine members of the Millburn Maidens' 4-H club entertained their mothers and friends at their annual achievement day on July 20. The program included a Hawaiian guitar solo by Shirley Harness, a health poem by Delores Shank, a demonstration on First Aid for heat exhaustion, sunstroke and foreign bodies in the eyes, by Carroll Truax and Lois Bonner. "The Girl in the Blue Bonnet" was sung by Lois Truax.

At Del-Ray Grocery Store you could buy a lb. of coffee for 28c; a lb. of Crisco for 19c; 2-7 oz. cans of tuna cost 35c; salmon 27c a 1-lb. can and would you believe - crabment for 29c a 6 1/2 oz. tin? (Wow! those were the good old days.)

The Antioch Library will observe longer hours during the month of August, according to the Librarian, Miss Mary Stanley. Beginning Aug. 1 it will be open each afternoon of the week, with the exception of Sun., from 2 to 6 o'clock. The library is located in the south wing of the grade school building, admittance is gained through the door on the south side. Although the library has been in existence 20 years there are still many persons in Antioch who do not know of its existence.

The dog awakened Mrs. Kennedy by his barking and she just had time to save Robert, 3 1/2, and Gregory, 10 months old, from their beds in the dining room which were charred before the fire was extinguished by the Antioch fire department.

James Lannam, 21, Antioch, is reported in fair condition at Kenosha Memorial Hospital, after being run over by a good hearted motorist who attempted to help him. Lannam had either fallen, or was sitting down at the side of Rt. 83, when a passing motorist stopped to help him. The driver accidentally backed his car over the youth. The motorist apparently panicked and drove off, running over Lannam a second time.

Car license renewals for 1979 available

SPRINGFIELD - Secretary of State Alan J. Dixon said recently his office has begun mailing more than six million pre-print renewal applications for 1979 passenger car license plates. The first under the new multi-year plate and staggered registration system.

The new blue on white aluminum plates will show "79" in the top right corner and the expiration date sticker will be placed in the top left corner. This 1979 plate will remain on the current vehicle or any replacement through 1983.

CHANGEOVER TO THE NEW system will require two years and at the end of that time, all registration for passenger cars will expire in the nine months of March through November. December has been set aside for registration of motorcycles, fleet and leased passenger vehicles. No registrations will expire in January and February.

"We are doing everything possible to acquaint car owners with the new system," Dixon said. "An explanation of expiration dates will be at the top of every application along with fees for two options, short and extended. The last two digits of the 1978 license number will determine the expiration month for each applicant."

In addition, instruction meetings on the multi-year plates are being held throughout the state by Secretary of State personnel for car dealers and others who will be selling 1979 licenses so they will be able to serve the public efficiently.

Dixon also pointed out that a package with the expiration sticker will be mailed with all 1979 licenses, along with instructions for placement on the rear license.

"Because the sticker is as important as the license, I urge everyone to apply it to the plate as soon as the package is received," Dixon added.

It is illegal to display the new 1979 plates before Dec. 1, the day over-the-counter sales begin. Deadline for reassignment and special request numbers is Sept. 30, as established by law.

Milbratz to receive plumbing certificate

Theodore Milbratz of Antioch will be awarded a Certificate of Completion upon graduating from the Plumbing Apprentice School at ceremonies on Aug. 4 at the Swedish Glee Club in Waukegan.

HE WILL BE AMONG eight graduates of the school, operated by Plumbers Union Local 93 and the Plumbing and Heating Contractors Assn. of Lake and McHenry Counties.

Diplomas signify completion of the four year apprenticeship program.

The plumbing apprentice school is located at 100 LeBaron St., Waukegan, and is operated by a Joint Apprenticeship Committee composed of members of Local 93 and the Plumbing Contractors Association with Gregory Streb, of Sherman Plumbing and Heating, Inc., Crystal Lake, serving as chairman.

The four year apprenticeship includes on-the-job training and 1,800 hours per year of classroom and shop instruction in math, drafting, blueprint reading, hydraulics, plumbing codes and safety. Shop work includes welding and brazing, lead-burning and joint wiping, basic surveying and servicing of plumbing fixtures.

Next step for the apprentice graduates will be to take a test to qualify for an Illinois Plumbing License which is required of anyone installing or servicing plumbing systems and fixtures.

The graduation service will be preceded by cocktails at 6:30 p.m., dinner at 7:30 p.m. and will be followed by dancing, according to Jack Keefe, of Plumbers Union Local 93, and Secretary of the JAC.

Special guests at the graduation will include Charles Corcoran, of the Bureau of Apprenticeship and Training, U.S. Department of Labor, officers and members of the Local 93 Executive Committee, officers of the contractors association, and L.E. (Ozzie) Koeltz of Zion, president of the Illinois Association of Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Contractors.

More than 80 apprentices will resume classes at the apprentice school in September, according to Keefe.

Gather auction items for Lions Club picnic

SOME OF THE AUCTION items donated so far are listed in the advertisement on page 24.

Don Morris, president of the Lions Club, said:

"We welcome such donations as sporting goods, autos and automotive accessories, boats, motors, lawn and garden equipment, art objects, antiques and other items that may be of reasonable auction value."

"All auction proceeds are donated to the Antioch Rescue Squad," he emphasized.

THE TWINKLE IN HIS EYES showed that a contestant in the pie-eating contest saw the humor in the results of his efforts to win a prize at last year's Lions Club picnic. It may have been messy, but it tasted better than his dad's shaving cream. Another pie-eating contest and other games for children will be part of the fun when the Lions hold their 1978 picnic at Williams Park on Sunday, Aug. 6.

Residents signing tax relief petition

Frank ReCupido, Democratic candidate for the Lake County Board from Antioch, has distributed property tax relief petitions throughout the area and has acquired over 1,000 signatures, he said.

The petitions, which ask for the aid of Gov. Thompson, will also be distributed this week at the Lake County Fair.

The petitions "strongly urge Gov. Thompson to sign into law HB 3279, the Bakalis Property Tax Refund program.

"The passage by the General Assembly of this Democratic initiative, first introduced by the Illinois Public Action Council, is a victory for all Illinois property taxpayers.

"This tax rebate program is a sound, responsible approach to bringing immediate property tax relief to renters and homeowners alike. Gov. Thompson says property taxes are 'low' in Illinois and that he will not sign HB 3279. The governor may think our taxes are low, but most of us know they are staggering.

"The Governor should sign HB 3279 into law. If he vetoes this program, we urge the members of the General Assembly to override his veto," the petition states.

King Richard's Faire

... a return to the Renaissance

By JODY PATROVSKY

Are kings and queens, jousters and jesters, mimes and minstrels only a textbook tale of the past? Not for the thousands of people who attend the sixth annual King Richard's Faire on Russell Road and North Avenue, less than 10 miles east of Antioch.

You enter into a world recreated from 15th century England complete with British dialects and authentic costumes. The object of the faire is to carry out the medieval theme in every respect, so the architecture, entertainment and menu is all from that time.

THE FAIRE IS FASHIONED after the Renaissance Pleasure Faire in San Francisco. This midwest version began six years ago located off Edwards Road, and then moved to a 20 acre site on Russell Road last year. The beautifully wooded area was a campground before it was transformed into the faire's permanent site.

The faire draws merchants and concessionaires from all over the country, from as far north as Minnesota, as far west as California, as far south as Texas and Louisiana, and as far east as Pennsylvania, with most of them coming from Illinois.

AS YOU WALK through the realm, you'll find over 100 different merchants and concessionaires selling hand-crafts, food and drinks, everything from jewelry, pottery, and leather goods to flower garlands and magic wands. And prime beef ribs, turkey drumsticks and corn-on-the-cob to goat milk fudge and lemonade. This also includes astrologers, Tarot readers, and artists to sketch your portrait.

The astrology is performed by the internationally famous Irene Hughes and one of the faire's famous artists is Sara Fields of Antioch.

SARA AND HER PARTNER, Rose Ann Ludford, have been quick-sketching portraits at the faire for the past five years. Their technique is portrait and Conte (a type of pastel) which they perfected at a CLC art course, where they met.

The drawings take 15 to 20 minutes and appointments can be made for later in the day, if necessary.

Portrait drawing has become a part-time job for them.

SARA FIELDS

working weekends all year at various art and county fairs. They sketch because they really enjoy it, and a stop at their booth is a definite highlight at the faire.

PROBABLY THE BEST part of the faire is the variety of food and drink offered. The Pennsylvanians bring goat milk fudge to the faire every weekend and this isn't their first time either. This husband and wife team employ a few others to help them make and sell the fudge, but they do most of the work themselves. They raise the goats for the milk needed to make their secret recipe in three flavors: chocolate fudge, maple walnut and peanut butter.

One of the new food items this year that seems to be popular in the kingdom are the prime ribs. These bar-b-qued beef ribs are basted and dipped in sauce and served as finger food, like the rest of the goodies sold at the faire.

ANOTHER HIGHLIGHT is the various types of entertainment continuing throughout the day.

There are hourly performances by mime companies, singers, musicians, commedia, troupes, and dancers at the King's and Queen's Stages.

There are also theatre productions, martial arts demonstrations, jousting, and games for audience participation. Other entertainers wander through the faire spontaneously performing for the crowds.

The performers began auditions for this year's faire in early March. Their goal is to achieve personal contact with the audience and get them involved in the performances.

One such group is the "Sturdy Beggars." The three are all theater majors at Northwestern University in Evanston. They are another first for the faire this year, in roles and costumes they created themselves. Most of the participants, like the "Sturdy Beggars," have other weekly jobs and just work at the faire on the weekends, while others move from faire to faire all over the country.

THERE IS A PARTICULAR theme for each weekend, and last weekend's theme was the "Queen's Chess Tourney." The Chicago Chess and Backgammon Club and the Milwaukee Municipal Chess Association recreated famous matches using human chess pieces.

Next week's event will be "His Majesty's Canine Show." All visitors and citizens of the kingdom are invited to enter the show in these categories: Sir Benji for All-Around Excellence, His Highness (biggest), His Lowness (smallest) and Least Likely to Succeed (but loveable). Free admittance to owners and dogs in costume.

IF YOU'RE GOING to King Richard's Faire to find hot dogs and soda pop, you won't find them there (they haven't been invented yet). You'll only find good times in a very well-done recreation of the Renaissance. The gates open at 10:30 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. for the next three weekends, through Aug. 12 and 13.

Admission is $4 for adults, $1 for children under 12, and children under 5 are free. There is plenty of free parking available.

Jousters, jesters, jugglers perform in Renaissance Faire

Warriors, jugglers, jousters and magicians roam the kingdom of King Richard where visitors can enjoy a weekend return to the Renaissance, a recreation of life in the England of 400 years ago.

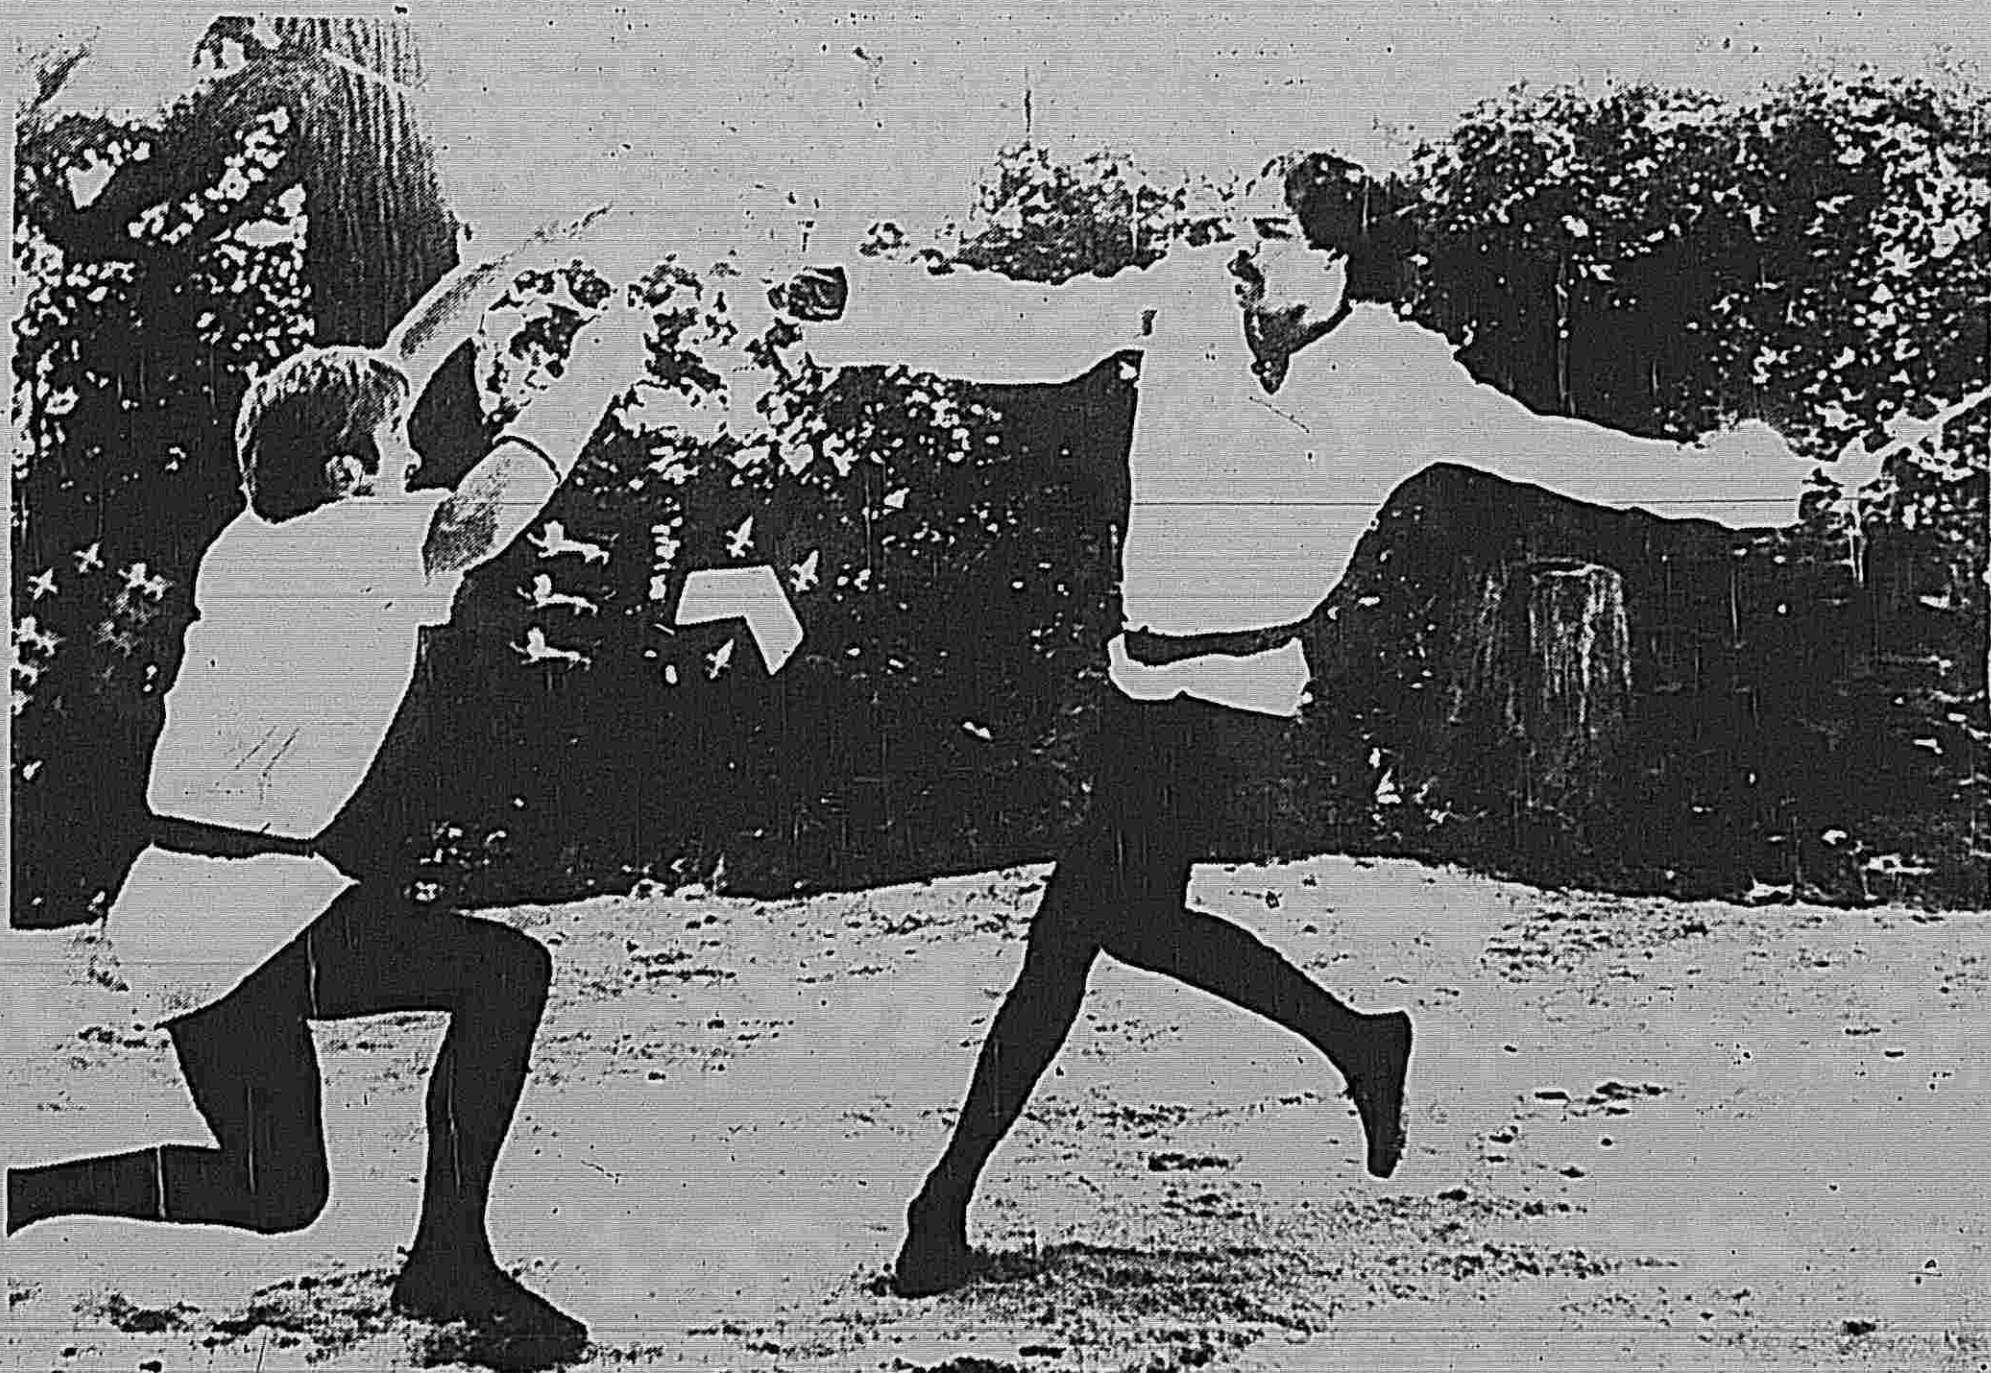

In the upper left, two English warriors clash shields in a flail battle while a juggler artfully displays his talent with flaming torches, upper right.

In the lower left, a hooded axman trudges through the realm and in the lower right, warriors engage in fencing for the favor of their ladies.

The faire will continue every weekend through Aug. 12-13 and is located east of Antioch off of State Line Road. Remaining theme weekends include "His Majesty's Hound Show" July 30, and the "Royal Sand Castle Construction" Aug. 5 and 6.

Visitors will be able to enjoy Renaissance plays, music, food and crafts as they travel through a time period where wizards advised and jesters entertained the king. (Photos by Sue Nasenbeny.)

How Antioch serves its people

reputation which the Antioch school system holds.

Mrs. Gail Heath, president of Antioch's District 34 grade school board, says that people contemplating a move to Antioch will often spend a half-day in one of the schools to observe how they are run. This very definitely points to the importance of the community's system of education holds for the modern-day homeowner.

Mr. Harley Ware, principal of Antioch's Lower Grade School, has been involved with the school system for more than 20 years. He has had experience in four schools as either teacher or principal.

Mr. Ware said that throughout the years the school system has continually expanded and improved itself in all areas ... facilities, supplies, personnel, curriculum, educational programs, and the school buildings themselves.

"Everything has been expanded tremendously," he said.

THE LOWER Grade School has had three additions built on since 1928. In 1958, Oakland School was opened, followed in 1971 by the Upper Grade School.

Presently, a new K-5 school is planned, not only to service the students already here, but also in anticipation of new students coming as a result of the housing construction going on in the township.

'School system expands, improves'

Enrollment-wise, the primary schools did not witness any great increases in student population between 1967 and 1975. Each year brought a slight but steady rise in student population, except for the past two years which have remained somewhat stable.

From 1976 to 1977, the enrollment actually decreased by 50 students. This was due to a decline in kindergarten registrations. One of the reasons is the nation's recent decline in birth rate.

ACCORDING TO Mr. Ware and Mrs. Heath, it is actually too soon to say how housing development in the community will affect the school system. Mr. Ware points out that a good deal of homes in the Lindenhurst Seven Hills area will soon be ready for new residents. How many of these residents will have young children of school age cannot yet be known.

Mrs. Heath said that reports indicate the new area to be developed near Trevor Road, extending up to the state line, may bring as many as 300 new children to the area.

In addition to the concept of expansion of the school system as a whole, Mr. Ware points out that the role of the school has greatly changed. Parents and the state and federal governments expect the schools to assume more responsibility for the general upbringing of the child. This can be seen in such programs as special education, reduced price program, free-lunch program, mandatory physical examinations, job-opportunities programs, and safety programs.

SOMETIMES THESE mandates from state and federal governments can cause problems, for then the question arises as to where the school will get funds for the programs.

Mrs. Heath reports a similar type of situation with building codes and regulations which often require renovations to the schools but which provide zero or inadequate monies for the school systems to do so.

Mr. Warren Polley, superintendent of the Antioch High School district, also reports a rather constant rate of student population growth from the year 1950 to the present.

Thus far, the development in the township has not made itself felt within the high school. According to Mr. Polley, it is too soon to say how present development will affect the school population in the future.

Developments mean 'many new children'

He reports that the high school has been continually broadening over the years in the areas of facilities, staff, curriculum and school programs. The high school itself has had three additions built on: one in 1928, one in 1952, another in 1970.

Improvements in lighting and ventilation and repair of the auditorium ceiling are now being done in efforts to meet certain safety requirements.

THE HIGH SCHOOL is in the process of constructing a separate building for the physically handicapped, and a new program for learning disabilities is in the planning stage.

On a larger scale, the high school is taking definite steps to handle the ever-increasing growth in the area. A 50-acre piece of land has been purchased near Oakland School in the Lindenhurst-Lake Villa area, where much of the housing construction is taking place. This has been purchased with the idea in mind to eventually build another high school to facilitate the growth within the district. The present high school district encompasses an area of 58 square miles.

IN TOTAL, it can therefore be seen that neither the primary nor secondary school districts have thus far been greatly affected by the tremendous surge of growth in the area.

While it is too soon to accurately predict what the future will bring, considerations are definitely being made for the provision of further facilities - not only for those students already here but for those who may come as a result of expansion in the area.

STUDENTS CANNOT successfully function without books. And in this realm, our community has once again seen expansion under the most capable direction of Miss Betty Lu Williams, directress of Antioch Township Library.

From the one-room library in Chinn's Newspaper and Magazine shop on Main Street (1921) to the modern, well-maintained, well-supplied library of today, facilities for the township have certainly come a long way.

Miss Williams says there has been a gradual increase in the use of the library since the construction of the newest building in 1970. Circulation has definitely gone up and records show 60 to 70 new people registering for library use each month.

Many students from the College of Lake County and other nearby schools come to use library facilities; and the augmentation of adult courses in the area brings more adults who need materials for their coursework.

Some of the directions the library is now taking include buying additional books for the building, pre-school story hours during the winter months, and shut-in programs in which books are brought to people who cannot get out of the house.

Also, Miss Williams is considering another attempt at a film program for senior citizens.

PROGRAMS FOR all ages and inclinations abound under the expert and enthusiastic direction of Mrs. Sue Koppa, the village's parks and recreation coordinator.

Officially, the Antioch Park Commission has only been operating since 1976, but before this time programs developed and functioned under a park board.

The list of activities offered for Antioch residents is both varied and impressive. Sports programs include basketball, volleyball, gymnastics, tennis, bowling, golf, soccer, softball and tumbling.

In the past few years, girls and women have expressed a stronger interest in sports activities for themselves, and these women's programs have developed as the need and demand has been found.

There are year-round pre-school programs and, at the opposite end of the gamut, senior citizen programs. A senior citizen nutrition program was begun in August, 1976, and is currently operating every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

THERE ARE day-camp programs, arts and crafts programs, and bicycle-safety programs. Additionally, special events, such as a Christmas tree lighting and Halloween party, are sponsored by the park commission.

Mrs. Koppa feels the park commission has more or less saturated the field of athletics and would like to shift directions toward more cultural and intellectual pursuits. Some activities she has in mind include yoga, music, painting, sculpture, ceramics and a book club.

Mrs. Koppa feels there is still a need for more programs, but questions the funding. She foresees possible difficulties with the tax revolt issue in which recreation programs may be the first to be cut.

Also, Mrs. Koppa feels that with the influx of more people into the community, additional parks would be both welcome and perhaps even necessary.

"I would like to see more land purchased and presented for parks," she said. Once again, however, the question of money for such projects must be seriously reviewed.

POLICE AND FIRE protection have frequently been cited as other major considerations made by prospective homeowners when choosing a new community.

Antioch's police and fire departments have consistently proven themselves to be capable, efficient and extremely concerned for the welfare of the community's residents.

Antioch has 24 rescue squad volunteers, led by Dave Heath, captain.

Everyone in town knows how these unpaid men leave their work or their homes when the siren sounds and rush to help the sick or those who are injured in accidents.

Over the years, the rescue squad has continued to improve its high standards of service to the community. Implementation of the paramedic program and the mobile intensive care unit vehicles provides the community with the finest available emergency medical service.

In the calendar year 1978, an excess of 800 squad calls is expected. Compared to last year, this represents an increase of over 100 calls.

Fire, rescue squads rank among the best

Mr. Charles Miller, Antioch's chief of police, reports both an increase in full-time police staff and along with this a corresponding decrease in thefts, vandalism and burglary.

In the past 13 years, the police force has gone from 5 to 16 full-time employees. More patrolling is being done and this has been reflected in a most noticeable decline in crime. Burglary, including auto theft, has been halved.

"A LONG as (we) keep squads on patrol and men working, we're in good shape," said Chief Miller, who expressed great pride and satisfaction with his men's work.

"With good enforcement and good patrolling, crime will go down ... It has been excellent enforcement by the men," said Chief Miller.

Crime is on the decline here

MR. TOD MAPLETHORPE, fire chief and superintendent of the village's department of sewer and water, speaks with equally as much pride and satisfaction toward his staff.

The fire department, running on a completely voluntary basis, is considered as competent and effective as any paid fire-fighting unit anywhere. The number of volunteers has doubled in the past 25 years and its equipment supply has also grown as the community has grown.

"As the area expands, we expand with it," said Mr. Maplethorpe.

Presently, there are 50 volunteers and 11 pieces of equipment for the village and township. Included in the fire department is a 12-man underwater recovery team.

ONE OF THE MOST exciting projects taking place with the fire department and rescue squad is the construction of the new safety building, on Orchard Street and Holbek Drive.

Mr. Maplethorpe also heads the village department of water and sewerage. Antioch's well water system has been operating since 1905. Presently, there are four wells operating and a contract has just been signed to begin construction of a fifth well. According to Mr. Maplethorpe, the well system is in very good operating order.

Antioch's sewerage system, which is a complete treatment system, was first built in 1917. It is presently operating at 75 percent capacity and can handle approximately 2,500 more people.

Mr. Maplethorpe said at the present rate of growth it would appear the village will be ready to begin construction on additional sewerage facilities in approximately five years.

BUT CARE is taken by the village planners not to have the cost of additional water and sewerage facilities for new homeowners shouldered by residents already living in the village.

People wanting to build houses within the township must have one acre of land to put in and pay for their own septic tank and well. Also a fund has been set up where each new home is charged $400 for sewerage plant expansion.

It can clearly be seen that this type of forethought on the part of community leaders and organizers is what has contributed to the high quality of Antioch's community services. Similar planning should continue to bring us distinctive and praiseworthy services in the future.

(Next week, we will conclude our series on the growth of Antioch with some statements and observations made by Antioch residents themselves.)

TOURNAMENT TIME?

The third annual Antioch Open golf championship will be held on two Sundays, Sept. 10 and 17, at Spring Valley Country Club in Salem.

The event again is being sponsored by the Antioch News.

ENTRY BLANKS for this year's tournament will be available about Aug. 1.

YOU WON'T BE SEEING Gail Flister's smiling face at Rittenhouse & Embree anymore. Gail is leaving the lumber company, darn it.

Friday will be her last day, and I'm sure going to miss her. I guess that means I'll have to start picking on Bud again.

'The Red Shoes' to be presented

The Antioch Children's Theatre, under the direction of Charles Brown, will present "The Red Shoes" beginning Aug. 11 at the Scout House on Main Street north of the Antioch Library.

Performances are set for 7:30 p.m. on Aug. 11 and 12, 2 p.m. on Aug. 13 and 3 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. on Aug. 19. Tickets are $2 for adults, $1 for children and 75 cents for a group of 10 or scouts in uniform.

BROWN SAID THE CAST includes Lori Koenig, Debbie Jones, Joanne Hill, Jim Martin, Paula Bloomquist, Dave Moffat, Bill Slater, Robin Miller, Ken Leahy, Ronda Stowell, Lori Ott, Eddie Roman, Chris Quinn, Chris Mattson, Nancy Balmes, Dave Pinkham, Sandy Olson, Cindy McGowen, Mrs. Ginnace Miller, Mary Pat Kengon, Patricia Gluck, Chuck Balmes and Tina Woolner.

Costume design will be done by Jennie Ott and Gina Pacheco, hair styles by Ginnace Miller, set construction by Bill Slater and choreography by Sherry Pierre.

The Story of "The Red Shoes" was written by Hans Christian Anderson, and dramatized by Hans Josef Schmidt. The playwright followed the original story faithfully with characters and customs drawn from the author of this tale of an orphan who has no shoes.

Through the scheming of an old soldier the orphan is led to a pair of red shoes. Putting them on, she changes from an appealing child to one that is vain and proud. She cannot remove the shoes and dances out.

The story is for young and not-so-young, directors said. Refreshments will be sold between the three acts. Tickets will be sold at the door.

The Antioch Children's Theatre is supported by PM&L Theatre and the Antioch Parks & Recreation. All proceeds go to furthering children's theatre in the community.

Women of the Moose in 'new year'

By JUDITH PAGE

Women of the Moose senior regent Judith Kelly called the first meeting of the new officers' year to order with 35 members attending.

Former member Trudy McGoldrick was reinstated and three new members will be enrolled soon, she said.

Since a new ritual is to be performed at every meeting, Judith asked all workers to attend a special ritual practice Tuesday, Aug. 15, at the Moose Home.

THE YEAR'S calendar of events and chapter policies were voted on. Recorder Dorothy Tralewski reported that, according to the final audit of June 30, the Antioch chapter should receive all Moose honors for last year.

Two who were unable to attend the installation of June 17 were installed - Academy of Friendship chairman Florence Ahrens and Elizabeth Andersen, hospital chairman. This completes the 31 member ritualistic staff of the chapter. Mrs. Kelly announced that at the meeting scheduled Aug. 3, star recorders from Waukegan will be the Chapters' guests. Enrollment of new members will be held at that meeting.

The Chinese were the first known people to acquire more than one name. The Emperor Fushi decreed the use of family names, or surnames, about 2852 B.C., according to World Book Encyclopedia.

Lake County Fair: family project for Hamlins

By SUE NASENBENY

As the Lake County Fair opens today, visitors will be strolling past all sorts of exhibits, from livestock to artwork to pastries, all carefully prepared for the once-a-year event.

One Antioch family, the Charles Hamlins, have been gearing up for the fair since last winter, with 4-H projects entered in the past that earned grand champion awards for 18-year-old Lynette's clothing designs and red ribbons for brother Mike's innovative electrical lamps and rabbit exhibits.

THE FAMILY PROBABLY became interested in 4-H, Lynette explained, because her mother, Esther, "was in 4-H from way back as a girl in Alden, Ill. She entered clothing projects and went to the State Fair."

She said her mother has judged clothing construction competition at the County Fair for the past three or four years and is also a clothing project leader in sewing for 4-H clubs.

SOME OF THAT TALENT has certainly rubbed off on her daughter, Lynette has been in 4-H for the past nine years and has entered as many County Fairs here. She has won three grand champions and two reserve grand champions (first alternate) for pant suits and dresses she has created, along with a reserved grand champion for her crocheting.

HER PRIZE-WINNING clothes have taken her to the State Fair in Springfield for the past four years, where she has emceed county and state dress revues.

As a representative to the state fair, she said she is judged for the construction of her clothing creations, attends clothing workshops and classes and participates in a style show for all participants.

For this year's fair, Lynette has modeled a two-piece wool pant suit with lining sewed on entirely by hand. She said she did not think she should sew it by machine, and the hand-sewn job was tedious enough that "I'd never do that again!" she laughed.

THE PANT SUIT HAS already earned her a first prize and she said she is waiting to find out if it will be awarded grand champion status, since all first places are considered for the title.

Also, a doily she made for a cedar chest has been given a reserve grand champion prize in the crocheting division.

When does she start her projects? Lynette said her 4-H club, under the direction of leader Carolyn Van Patten of Antioch, has monthly meetings and she begins her clothing designs in the winter. Lynette is also a junior club leader and said many of the members' recipes for the cooking entries are perfected over the winter for fair competition.

THE TALENTED YOUNG LADY has also entered the "Do Your Own Thing" section of competition where participants can select any exhibit not under any other category in the fair. She chose "music" where she will submit programs and judging sheets from the Antioch High School choir, of which she was a member.

Her brother Mike, 15, also participates in the fair, as he has for the past two years, entering electrical equipment and rabbits.

MIKE MADE A LAMP by hand last year from a maple syrup bottle and won a second place ribbon. This year he is entering an outdoor lamp he made from a wooden post.

He also entered a litter of chinchilla rabbits and a dwarf rabbit last year and was awarded a second place ribbon, while this year he will enter one dwarf rabbit in the livestock competition.

Lynette admitted that Mike joined 4-H at her encouragement and now little brother Brad, 7, plans to join next year when he is eligible for membership.

MIKE HAMLIN TAKES special care of his dwarf rabbit he named "Chocolate" which he will enter in the Lake County Fair this year. Last year his chinchilla rabbits earned a second place.

The whole family looks forward to fair time. They are involved in different aspects but enjoy the friendly atmosphere, even among those in competition.

And Lynette, as a result of her participation in 4-H, was recently awarded the Helen Volk scholarship at Antioch High, which goes to a qualified daughter or son of a former 4-H or Homemaker member.

She said she will use the $1,000 award toward tuition and expenses at Southern Illinois University in Carbondale this fall, where she plans to major in pre-med and physiology.

All 4-H'ers may not attain this level of achievement with grand champion awards and $1,000 scholarships. Not everyone can manage a first prize, but the Hamlins know that involvement with the club and participation at the fair can be a worthwhile and enjoyable experience.

And as they stroll by the exhibits at the fair this year, they'll know just what kind of work went into the project. It's work, but it's also a lot of fun, Lynette emphasized.

Lop-eared rabbits to enter fair

By SUE NASENBENY

Laura and Mitch Kruczek are sister and brother, and both have the same type of rabbit entered in this year's Lake County Fair.

Is there any rivalry? Laura will be a seventh grader at Emmons School and Mitch will be a sophomore at Antioch High. Laura has been active in the fair since joining 4-H three years ago. Mitch entered his rabbits for the first time last year.

LAURA JUST LAUGHED when asked if there is any competition between her and her brother. "My rabbit is the best, there's no competition." She said she simply enjoys entering her rabbits, which have earned her three first places and one third place over the past three years.

She first entered 4-H after she became interested in it from a friend at school. Since then she has been checking, grooming, brushing and taming her rabbits for livestock competition each year.

This year's entry is a French lop female named Mopsy, with long, floppy ears as its name indicates. Mopsy is about four months old and only half-grown, but still huge compared to her white Polish rabbit, which she entered in the fair last year.

MITCH IS ALSO entering his French lop, which he purchased at the Elkhorn rabbit show. "Lou Boudreau" (he's French, after all) is about the same age as Mopsy and will be making a premiere appearance at the County Fair.

Mitch was awarded a first place for the Dutch rabbit he entered last year, and is hoping for the same success with Lou.

The two are also active in other areas of the fair. Laura is entering a mosaic craft of Snoopy the dog (of "Peanuts" comic strip fame) playing football. She worked on the project, made from black-eyed peas and barley, since last winter.

SHE ALSO HAS a nature craft entered, made from dried flowers and ferns. Her crafts have won her a first place and a second place in the past.

Mitch has also entered the bowling competition of the fair. After six weeks of bowling this past spring, a "Bowl-Off" is held for all 4-H'ers. If a participant's score is higher than his average, he usually wins a first place, Mitch said.

He won a first place last year. What about this year? "Well, I'll be graded at the fair," he said, and added shyly that he thinks he might get a first place again this time.

HE MAY NOT have much to worry about in bowling competition, but both he and Laura must be at the fair at one time every day to feed their animals. The livestock is judged on Wednesday and exhibited the remainder of the week.

But what is it about the fair that draws the two young people back each year and motivates them to participating in competition?

"The prizes," Laura said. Along with the recognition and the fun.

CUDDLING HER FRENCH LOP rabbit called "Mopsy," Laura Kruczek, said she will enter her in the Lake County Fair this year. Laura has entered rabbits in the fair for the past three years.

MILWAUKEE - Timothy H. Osmond, Antioch agent of Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance was honored Monday for outstanding sales among the company's more than 3,600 agents nationally during the 1977-78 "honor year" which ended May 31.

Osmond received an award given for sales by newer agents.

Honor presentations were made at the 98th annual meeting of the company at the firm's Milwaukee home office.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

ANTIOCH'S NEW POSTMASTER, Wayne C. Van Heirsele, looking wonderfully tanned from his recent vacation in California, was sworn into his new job Tuesday morning. He is from Waukegan and has a lovely wife, Patricia, and a 7-year-old daughter, Debra.

The new postmaster must commute from Waukegan and told me he may move to Antioch. I certainly hope he does, he'd be a marvelous (and handsome!) neighbor.

Did you see the lines waiting to buy tickets for the return of "Star Wars" last weekend?

The people "wrapped themselves halfway around the block," all the way from the theater to the Antioch News office.

And lots of folks, especially the kids, were seeing it for the second time.

Just like the old days.

SEE YOU THIS EVENING at Blarney Island!

The Wednesday party will last from 4 till 9 p.m. and is being called "Burger and Brew with Betty Lou."

State Rep. Betty Lou Reed will be there to talk with folks about their problems on the Chain of Lakes.

For $5, you get a free boat ride from either Haling's Marina or Grass Lake Marina.

Said Mayor Mike Haley:

"Betty Lou has been the most outspoken legislator in support of the Chain of Lakes and its problems ... and also in getting recognition as one of the most important natural resources we have in Illinois."

WOW, SPAFFORD STREET was humming last Sunday. It seemed like almost everyone in town dropped in to help Mel and Goldie Stillson celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.

What a wonderful couple, and what a super time was had by all! A fitting tribute to the Stillsons.

KEN AND BETTY SMOUSE are back from a wonderful 8-day vacation in California, where they spent time in both San Francisco and San Diego.

"The weather was terrific and we'll just have to go back, because there is so much more to see - especially in San Francisco," Betty said.

Needless to mention, the PM&L Theatre couple took in a few shows while on the West Coast.

HEY, HAPPY-ANNIVERSARY, you two! I'm talking to Gus and "K" Costoff who celebrate today, Wednesday.

Sunday, July 30, is Nick Badame's birthday ... let's all celebrate by going out for pizza!

And next Monday, July 31, is the day Bernie Gutowski becomes 39 again. The fire department ... the Little League ... Bernie sure has devoted a lot of time for the good of Antioch ... no wonder he stays so young.

CONGRATULATIONS TO Mike and Ruth Warren on the arrival of their new baby boy, David Douglas, who was born Sunday, July 23.

Mike and Ruth now have three sons and a daughter.

Thanks to the lady who called to inform us that Phillips Circle is named after William J. Phillips, president and developer of Sequoit Terrace. (We didn't really think it was for Judy Phillips.)

But after Judy and her husband, George, leave for Texas we could rename one of our streets Judy Junction. After all, she has worked hard for the village.

Our question this week is: "who was Alima, after whom Alima Terrace was named?"

DON'T FORGET THAT Antioch's entertainer and singing star, Lloyd Pedersen, will be performing at Hawthorn Center Thursday night with Wayne King and his orchestra. The show begins in the center's north parking lot at 9:30 p.m.

We learned this week that Lloyd appeared in the movie "T.R. Baskin" with Candice Bergen, James Caan and Peter Boyle. We saw the movie on TV last week ... super movie ... but we weren't aware that we should have been looking for Lloyd.

Scout troop 91 to celebrate 25th anniversary

Boy Scout Troop 91 will hold its 25th anniversary on Thursday, Nov. 2 with a pot luck banquet, sponsored by the Methodist Church.

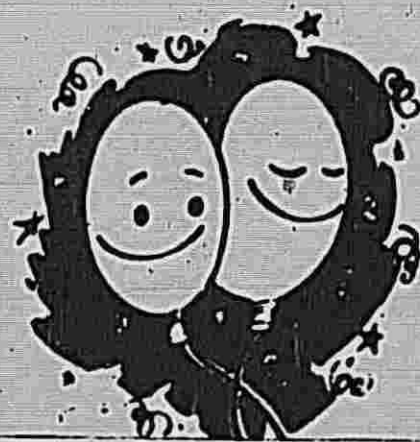

In the meantime, the troop is looking for information about its history. Pictures, awards and patches of past activities will be displayed at the November banquet. Also, plaques will be awarded to honor former scoutmasters and eagle scouts.

Former members are requested to send their name, address, phone and boy scout data to either Scoutmaster Bob Brown, Rte. 1, Box 167, Trevor, Wis. 53179 or Committee Chairman Mel Davis, Rte. 3, Box 817, Antioch.

Those who were involved in Troop 91 are encouraged to send in information so that they may be invited to the celebration banquet.

Organizers said to include date of involvement in the troop, which rank received and when, and any awards received while a member.

ONCE AGAIN, THE COMPETITION was so close in the boys 16-17 age group that it seemed any of several players could have won. Tom Surrock played an exciting match with champion Tom Mehlhorn but had to settle for second. Last year, Surrock lost to Dennis Korjenek in a title match that featured long, thrilling rallies by both players.

Swim team wins Kenosha relays

The Antioch Swim Team, sponsored by the State Bank of Antioch, won the Kenosha relays held at Tremper High School last Thursday.

The Antioch team finished with more than 100 points over the second place contender, Kenosha Recreation, while Union Grove and Kenosha Country Club followed behind. Coaches said the swimmers worked hard for the victory. The first place trophy is on display at the State Bank.

ON TUESDAY, JULY 18, the Antioch team traveled to McHenry to race the park district team there. They were defeated, but coaches said they had put a lot of effort into the meet.

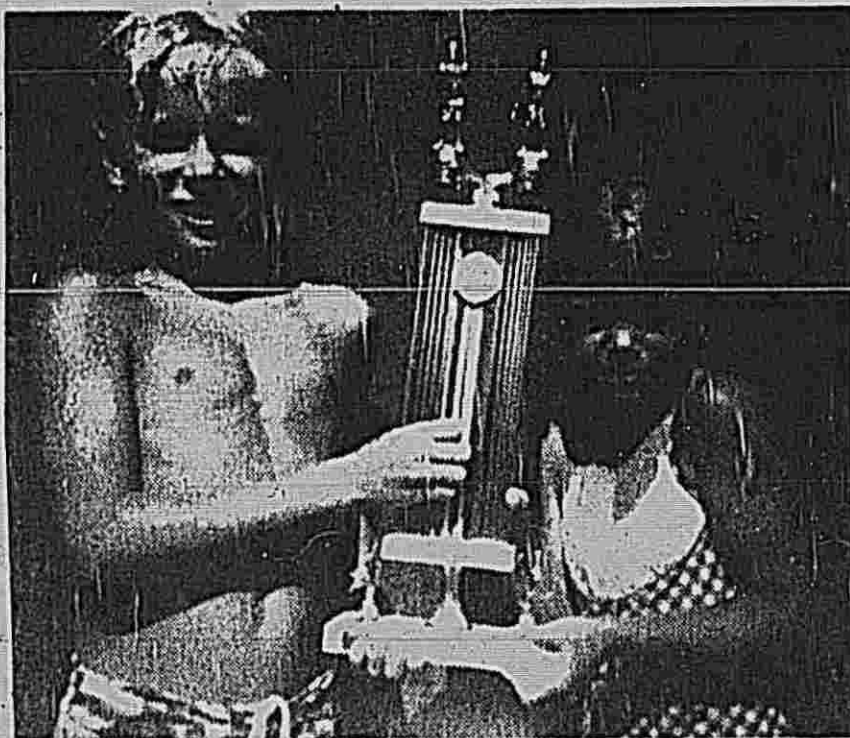

Sue Harrison and Shelly Volling led the team with four firsts each while Julie Konchan captured three. Double winners were Julie Wierschem, George Bessette and Tina Spielz.

Single victories went to Jennifer Czapiewski, Ann Ivy, Matt Ludwig, Kit Hoover and Kris Stanczak.

The Antioch swim team placed third in both the "A" and "B" North Suburban Conference meets held at Brentwood Club in Waukegan last Saturday. The Plum Grove team at Palatine was the conference champion again this year with a total score of 411.

Brentwood, Antioch and Fox Point followed with respective scores of 300, 237 and 232.

EIGHT ANTIOCH SWIMMERS were able to place firsts in individual events, beating seven other swimmers. In the "A" meet Sue Harrison, George Bessette, Shelly

RUSS IVY and KIM WHITE

Volling and Julie Konchan each won two first places while John Bellucci and Ted Bessette both took one first.

In the "B" meet, Craig White won three events and Mary Fleming won one event.

Coaches said the swim team is anxiously awaiting the Antioch Invitational to be held the morning of the farmer's auction and picnic, August 6, at the Antioch Aqua Center.

Friday night races set at Waukegan

The Waukegan Speedway is planning several special Friday night racing shows from now until Labor Day.

Kicking things off will be a "Family Night" on Friday.

Then, Aug. 4 will be a late model show. Other events will be announced soon.

The "Family Night" will feature reduced admission prices, hobby stocks racing for points, a powder puff race, "Beat Your Neighbor" racing, parent and child tire roll, a big wheel race and couple's wheelbarrow race, along with other surprises.

THE SPEEDWAY will host its regular late model programs on Saturdays with super-modifieds running Sundays.

This Friday gates open at 6 p.m. with time trials at 7 and racing at 8. The track is 1/4 mile east of Rt. 41 on Washington St. in Waukegan.

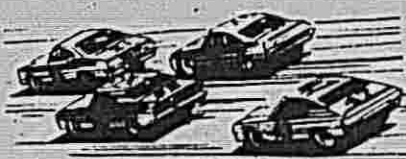

WAUKEGAN WAS the scene of 150 laps of racing action on Sunday night as three divisions ran.

Rick Lemanski won the 25-lap super-modified feature with Chuck Bostick of Waukegan winning the 20-lap late model feature.

Monty Grasswick picked up the checkered in the 12-lap hobby main event.

Lemanski led the modified feature from start to finish with trophy dash and heat winner Gary Dye pressing him hard the final few laps. Dye settled for second with Bill Kojis, Bill Klein and Darrel Dodd rounding out the top five.

The race was red-flagged on lap two when Gene Erdmann put his car on its nose in the first turn and then hit the wall hard. Erdmann was uninjured, however his car received considerable damage.

The fastest qualifier was Don Collins of Antioch. Collins was third in the late model feature and Tom Homan of Antioch fifth.

Little League stars win district crown

For the first time in memory, Antioch's Little League tournament team has won the district championship.

The local stars routed Morton Grove North 10-0 in Saturday's title game. Previously they had beaten Mundelein 3-0, Great Lakes 2-0 and Libertyville 3-1, giving up only one run in four tournament games.

Manager Andy Proctor expects his team to play its next game on Saturday, Aug. 3, in a four-team sectional meet at Glenview. The sectional winner advances to the state tournament.

"WE'LL FIND OUT how good we are in the sectional," Proctor said. "The people in Libertyville said previous district winners haven't gotten through the sectional, so we have our work cut out."

Proctor's team of Antioch Little League stars includes his younger brother, Barry; Danny Berkiel, Dennis Bergl, Joel Bissing, John Humphreys, John Mahar, Frank Mahar, Andy Lehn, John Silianoff, Nick Sciortino, Ed Poulos, Dale Kellor, Jeff Johnson, Tom Higgins and Eddie LaPlante.

FRANK MAHAR PITCHED and hit a home run in the district semifinals against Libertyville.

In the 10-0 win over Morton Grove North, John Humphreys and Andy Lehn combined to pitch a three-hit shutout.

Lehn, a catcher, hit a two-run homer and, then, because he has a good arm, Proctor tried him as a pitcher in the last two innings. Lehn promptly struck out five batters.

Humphreys hit a double and a triple and Barry Proctor a double and a single.

IN THE 3-1 WIN over Libertyville, Antioch's foe had the bases loaded with one out in the last inning. The next batter hit a high bounder which pitcher Mahar leaped and caught. He fired the ball to catcher Lehn for one out and Lehn rifled it to Humphreys at first for a double play that saved the Antioch victory.

"We've got a lot of smart players," said manager Proctor. "They know what to do with the ball."

Brewers win 17-0 in playoff

The Brewers startled the Braves 17-0 last Saturday in the championship game of Antioch's Minor League baseball season.

The playoff was held at the Little League field, the Brewers entering the game with an 11-3 record and the Braves with almost as many wins.

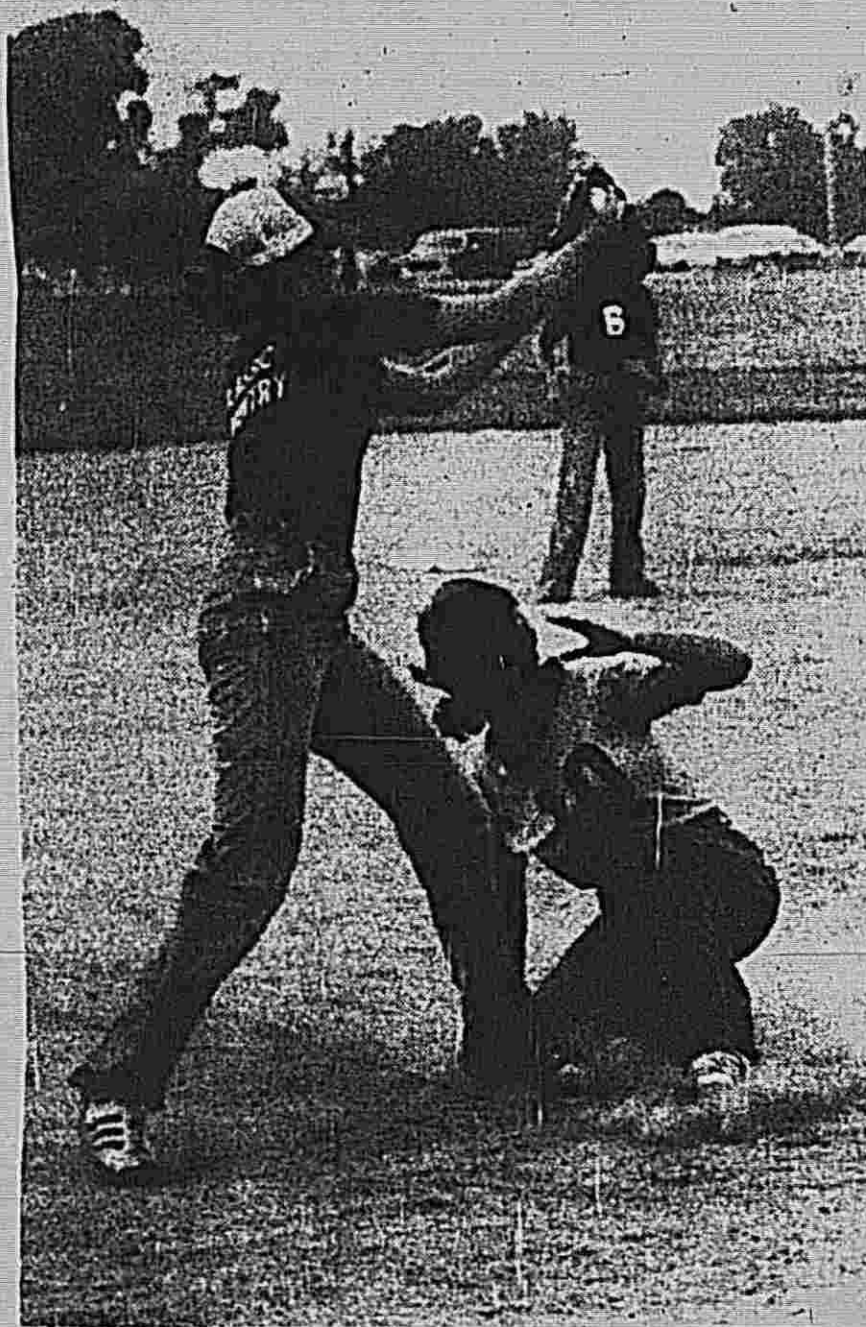

Danny Adams and Larry Rodgers shared pitching chores for the Brewers and held their rivals to one hit.

How did they manage to win so easily in a game that was supposed to be close?

"I don't know," said Larry. "We just had some hittin'."

Larry's dad, Don Rodgers, is manager of the championship team composed of boys between the ages of 8 and 12.

Minor League players will be trying out for the Little League next season.

GOOD PSYCHOLOGY

Psychologists say you can usually change the attitude of others toward you. If you're more cheerful when dealing with them they might become more friendly towards you.

The first silver dollar was coined in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1794!

Equestrian trail opens near here

A new, eight-mile equestrian trail at Chain O'Lakes State Park near Spring Grove opened July 14 to help meet the need for horse-riding trails.

"I think the trail will be a great ride," John Comerio of the Department of Conservation said. "It will be particularly convenient for people living in west Lake County. It's our first equestrian trail in this part of the state."

The trail was developed through the federally funded Youth Conservation Corps resident program at Chain O'Lakes. Youths began construction of the trail last year and finished it this summer.

Access to the trail is one and a half miles south of the Route 173 and Wilmot Rd. intersection.

the 19th hole

Three Antioch golfers distinguished themselves with remarkable performances at area courses last week.

One was Jack Fields, a vice president of the State Bank of Antioch, who shot a 74 at Spring Valley Country Club on nines of 39 and 35.

Jack hit almost every one of the 18 greens in regulation in a special match between two teams from the Antioch Tuesday night businessmen's league.

"I've never had the pleasure of seeing you hit the ball that well," a friend told Jack.

"It's been a long time since I've had that pleasure myself," smiled Jack.

IN THE Lake County Republican Club tournament at Brae Loch, in Grayslake, Dick Kirkpatrick, an Antioch accountant, almost had a hole-in-one on a 150-yard hole on the back nine. Dick's 7-iron off the tee landed on the green and rolled past the edge of the cup, stopping about four inches in back of the hole. Needless to say, he won a "closest to the pin" prize for that shot.

Another prize winner was in Kirkpatrick's foursome. Dave Bushing of Foremost Liquors not only toured the 18 holes in 81 strokes but belted the longest drive of the day off the 10th tee and also was closest to the pin on a 170-yard hole on the front nine. Dave's high 4-iron shot landed and stopped only eight feet from the pin.

Dick and Dave were guests of Dick Daniel, vice-president of the State Bank of Antioch. Because of Mr. Bushing's 81, he and a fellow named Jerry Pfarr (who isn't long but terribly straight) were able to win $7.50 each from Mr. Kirkpatrick and Mr. Daniel, despite Daniel's amazing pitching and putting.

Bushing said he wants a rematch immediately, but Daniel is holding out for strokes after watching that 81.

Sad and sudden was the call,
Of one so dearly loved by all.

A bitter grief, a shock severe,

It was to part with one so
dear.

We often sit and think of you

And speak of how you did,
To think you could not say good-by

Before you closed your

For all of us you did your best.

Oh, God, grant you eternal
